

Fellswater

Boston's Celtic Music Ensemble

Consider Fellswater for your next event

Fellswater is a dynamic 7 piece Celtic music ensemble based out of Boston playing a wide range of music from traditional to modern compositions, drawing from the music of Scotland, Ireland, Galicia, Canada and beyond. Fellswater has delighted audiences at the New Hampshire Highland Games, Blackstone River Theatre, Boston Celtic Music Fest, The Burren Backroom Series, Club Passim and Colonial Williamsburg. The band was featured at the 2015 Royal Nova Scotia International Tattoo, playing for 8,000 nightly. Fellswater performed in the world renowned Royal Edinburgh Military Tattoo as well as presented two concerts in the Edinburgh Festival Fringe in August 2018. 2022 saw debuts in The Sembrich's World Music concert series and a rousing debut at Dreamland Theatre on Nantucket. The band and the renowned Metropolitan Chorale presented Celtic Crossroads: a collaborative concert in celebration of St. Patrick's Day at the JFK Library in Boston in March 2023.

Fellswater has released three well-received albums, Fellswater, Thursday Night and Skipping Stones.

The band features Dave Cabral on cello and Celtic harp, Kyle Forsthoff on percussion, Betsy Ketudat on violin and nyckelharpa, Sarah MacConduibh on Irish flute, whistles, fife and accordion, Andrew McIntosh on Scottish smallpipes and border pipes, Chris Myers on vocals, guitar, banjo and octave mandolin and Diane Myers on vocals.

Fellswater is available to hire for a wide range of events, from weddings and anniversaries, corporate events to fundraisers. The ensemble performs regularly at music clubs and concert halls to Celtic festivals and Highland Games. Our travel range is primarily throughout New England with occasional overseas appearances.

Fellswater is comfortable in an acoustic setting or fully "plugged in."
